DESCRIPTION:

The space is hosted at a boutique building built around 1880 with horizontal stripes grey and white similar to the antique structures of the medieval period in the Tuscany and in Lombardy. The space is located between the bell-tower and the apse of famous the San Marco Church.

It's an extremely charming place, very unique with two very diverse spaces: one is a suggestive hidden garden (450 sqm / usable 350 sqm) full of flowers and secrets; the second one is a contemporary open-space of 450 m2 very elegant.

The location is a unique corner in the heart of Brera in Milan, ideal to host private events, art exhibitions, meetings, photo-shoots, business lunch/dinner, and much more.

To add up to the magnificent space, we offer a wide apartment overlooking the internal garden. The apartment has 2 bedrooms one a double-room and the other one a single room both with private bathrooms. To complete the piece there is a fully-equipped kitchen and a cozy living room. The apartment is available for short-rent periods. It is organized with a professional housekeeper that takes care of the full-service same as hotels including continental breakfast.
